ABOUT ME

I am a motivated final-semester Bachelor of Computer Science (Database Management) with Honours student at Universiti Teknikal Malaysia Melaka, born on 25 July 2002 and raised in Johor Bahru. With hands-on experience in SQL, data modeling, ETL processes and programming languages, I excel at designing and optimizing relational databases. Eager to apply my analytical skills and passion for turning raw data into actionable insights, I'm ready to contribute and grow through a real-world internship opportunity.
